The first Tudor king was Henry VII. He was born in 1457 and died in 1508. He became king at the Battle of Bosworth in 1485. When he died, his son became King Henry VIII. Henry VIII was born in 1489 and was 19 years old when he became king.

Henry VIII is famous for having six wives. His first wife, Catherine of Aragon, was a Spanish princess. They were married in 1509 and divorced in 1532. They had one surviving daughter, Elizabeth.

His next wife was Anne Boleyn. Henry was very much in love with Anne to begin with but when she didn't give him a son, he soon got tired of her. On 29th May 1536, Anne Boleyn was executed for treason. She had one daughter, Mary.

Next was Jane Seymour. Jane gave Henry the son he so desperately wanted but Jane died due to childbirth complications on 24th October 1547. Henry's fourth wife was Anne of Cleves. They married in January 1940 but divorced less than six months later.

Henry's final two wives were Catherine Howard and Catherine Parr. Catherine Howard was put to death (like her cousin Anne Boleyn) in 1540 but Catherine Parr outlived Henry VIII. Henry died on 26th January 1547.

Mary I became queen when Henry died, followed by his only son Edward VII, and finally Elizabeth I. Queen Elizabeth was queen for 44 years and died in 1602. She had no children.
